Hello Parents and Guardians of Herndon Magnet School Students, this is Tom Thomas, Principal of Herndon Magnet School, with information about the last day of school tomorrow, May 19th.

Tomorrow is not a street clothes day, but students may wear a t-shirt of their choice with uniform bottoms. T-shirts must meet CPSB dress code on page 12 of the student agenda. T-shirts cannot be plain white t-shirts, have missing sleeves, or have holes or tears in them. T-shirts must be appropriate.

Middle school students must wear their permanent student ID.

Remember, there are to be no backpacks tomorrow, and there will not be any bus changes.

Make sure your child turns in all library books or has the money for lost library books in the morning.

Please have a safe and happy summer break!
